

CONSTITUTION

The name of the Society is FALKLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The purposes of the Society are:

1. to secure, catalogue and display local and area artifacts and archival materials of historical significance;
2. to provide and maintain a secure and appropriate environment to house historical objects and information;
3. provide a permanent building which will be open to the public and which will become an important community resource;
4. to appoint an on-going committee which will be otherwise known as the Historical Liaison Committee to maintain a relationship with families in the area;
5. to take on activities, programs and services to educate, engage and connect with both the community and public through arts and culture as a whole.
